

W. H. REEVES RESIGNS AS CITY MANAGER

NEW ELECTRIC LINE READY TO RUN IN FEBRUARY

Glendale Avenue System Is Being Rushed; Relief
For Congestion

Electrification of Glendale avenue should be completed and cars running by February 1, declares Preston L. Hatch, general manager.

This announcement will be received with interest by the entire city, and particularly those sections lying to the north and east of Brand boulevard, which heretofore, has carried the only electric line in Glendale.

Long a scenic line running down from Montrose to the corner of East Broadway and Maryland, with another branch serving Eagle Rock as far east as the "Flagpole" corner, the Glendale & Montrose railway is now about to emerge into a period of greatly increased service.

More Equipment
Anticipating the added demands that would be placed upon it with the electrification of Glendale avenue, the line has recently added a fifty-ton Baldwin locomotive to its rolling stock, and in addition three new cars which will be put on the Los Angeles run.

On November 15 the general offices of the company were moved to the new headquarters in their own building on Glendale avenue
just north of Broadway. Mr.
Hatch points with pride to this concrete evidence that the line is forging ahead with rapid strides.

Proposed Route
Electrification of the Glendale avenue line is being accomplished in conjunction with the Union Pacific, who control the right of way.
It is planned to run the cars south to Verdugo road crossing, near York boulevard, where transfer will be made to Los Angeles over the Los Angeles Railway company's Eagle Rock line.

An effort is now being made to have this company run cars to the transfer point for Glendale and Montrose traffic only, states
Mr. Hatch. Should this be successful, a fast through trip to the city would be assured, greatly relieving the present congestion during the rush hours and offering an added convenience to thousands.

Mabel Normand and Victim
Of Shooting on Road to Recovery, Report

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—All was reported quiet today at the Good Samaritan hospital, where Courtland S. Dines, Denver sportsman, and Mabel Normand are confined. Dines, who was shot and seriously wounded New Year's night by Horace A. Greer, Miss Normand's chauffeur, while Dines was giving a party for Miss Normand and Edna Purviance, was reported today as steadily improving. Miss Normand, who was operated upon two days after the shooting for appendicitis and who suffered a relapse Tuesday, was said today to be somewhat improved after a quiet night. She is gaining rapidly, it was claimed.
It was revealed today that Greer had been warned by friends that he might have trouble with Dines, as he had beaten one of Miss Normand's former drivers.
Attorney Clarence B. Conlin, representing Greer, was expected to apply for his bail today.

Huge Total of Tax Exempt Securities

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The treasury department this afternoon issued an official statement estimating the total amount of tax exempt securities in the United States at $14,670,000,000.

Of this total, $2,631,000,000 worth of securities are held in state or federal treasuries, leaving $12,039,000,000 in circulation.
States, counties and cities issued $9,536,000,000 of these securities; the federal government $1,154,000,000; and the federal land banks $1,123,000,000.

LOOKING FOR A SAFE PLACE TO LAND

POSSE DESTROYS
BANDITS' REFUGE

Entire Hamlet Wiped Out By Angry Citizens After Pitched Battle

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 10.—The little hamlet occupied by the Ashley-Mobley bandit gang, deep in the Everglades, about thirty-five miles north of here, was completely wiped out today by enraged citizens as a result of the pitched battle all day yesterday between officers and bandits, in which Deputy Sheriff Fred Baker and Joe Ashley, one of the outlaws, were killed.

Sheriff Bob Baker reported today that he believed several of the bandits were killed or seriously wounded and that their bodies are somewhere in the dangerous and treacherous everglade swamp.

Five houses, a store, filling station, and several automobiles were burned last night and early today, comprising the bandits' stronghold near Fruita, Fla.

Wives, children and other relatives of the outlaws were confined to the local jail for safe keeping.

MELLON PLAN IS FACING DEFEAT

Coalition in Congress Will Make Many Changes in Tax Cut Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The Mellon plan of tax reduction has met such formidable opposition in both senate and house that Republican leaders were privately conceding today it cannot be passed in its present form.

Congress will reduce taxes.
That much is assured by all factions. And the program laid down by Secretary Mellon will afford the basis of reduction. But the coalition between Democrats and La Follette insurgents, now a matter of record, has virtually assured the defeat of many of the Mellon rates. Republican leaders are not acknowledging defeat publicly, as that would be "bad strategy," but in the privacy of cloak rooms and conference rooms
it is conceded.

CHOSEN POSTMASTER
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The nomination of James H. Whitaker to be postmaster at Anaheim, Cal., was confirmed by the Senate late yesterday.

Congressman Urges
Charles R. Forbes
Be Put Under Arrest

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Immediate arrest of Charles R.
Forbes, former director of the Veterans' Bureau, as inferentially charged with bad conduct in administering the affairs of the bureau, was requested of Attorney General Daugherty today by Representative W. W. Larson, Democrat, of Georgia.

The Georgia representative wrote a letter to Daugherty, urging the issuance of warrants for all those "suspected or involved" in the recent disclosures concerning the bureau's affairs.

At the department of justice it was said there is little likelihood of such action at this time.

SEIZURE POLICY
MENACES TREATY

Capture of Rum Runners By U. S. Dry Agents Worries
British Officials

LONDON, Jan. 10.—Foreign office officials admitted today that recurring seizures of British ships by the American prohibition authorities is "causing much anxiety and endangering the proposed An-Lo-American rum running treaty."

Officials characterized the American ship seizure as "high-handed illegal acts which have given rise to considerable irritation in British government circles." This feeling of resentment, it was claimed, is not confined to England, but is spreading throughout the British Empire.

London believes that the seizures were not ordered by Washington but were the result of overzealous local officials.

Senate Committee to Hear Soviet Debate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The question of American recognition of soviet Russia will be threshed out at public hearings before the Senate foreign relations committee.

By a vote of 11 to 2, the committee today adopted a resolution instructing Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the committee chairman, to appoint five members to conduct hearings. The investigation, which will be concerned with the whole Russian situation in relation to the United States, probably will start within ten days.

CONGRESS NEAR RAILROAD FIGHT

Election of Democrat Head Of Powerful Committee
Presages Warfare

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Announcement of an energetic campaign to revise and repeal some sections of the transportation act came swiftly on the heels today of the election of a Democrat, Senator Ellison D. Smith, of South Carolina, to the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee in a Republican-controlled Congress.

Smith's election by a coalition of Democrats and Republicans insurgents apparently has made certain a railroad fight of far-reaching proportions in the turbulent sixty-eighth congress. The Democrats are opposed to the Esch-Cummins bill as a matter of party policy, and the La Follette insurgents are rabid against it—thus placing the law's enemies in the majority in both houses.

Steamer Puts Back
To Secure New Cook

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—
With a new cook the German steamer Elenore was on her way to Portland today.

She put back to port after having steamed 100 miles up the coast toward her destination. The captain said it was to trim cargo, but several members of the crew who left the boat here declared the cook was the reason. At any rate, a new cook was signed for the voyage.

The Elenore will load grain at Portland, it was said.

EGYPTIANS DISPLEASED

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 10.—The Egyptian government today decided to censor despatches from Luxor to the London Times because an official communique said that Tut-Aankh-Amen's mummy would remain in the tomb because King George of England desired
it. This statement incensed the Egyptian officials.

COOLIDGE'S CHOICE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—President Coolidge today sent the following nominations to the Senate:
To be major-general, Brigadier-General Fred Slayden; to be brigadier-generals, Colonel Samuel D.
Rockenbach and Colonel Frank Parker.

STATE LOAN
RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

Association Holds Annual Meeting, Votes Dividend
Of 6 Per Cent

A general feeling of confidence among stockholders of the Golden State Building Loan Association prevailed at the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon in the offices of the company at 104
East Broadway, when the retiring directors were without exception re-elected for the ensuing year and all officers retained.

Declaration of a 6 per cent dividend on the capital stock further contributed to the feeling of confidence and optimism that prevailed and establishes an unusual record for a new institution, whose charter was granted January 2, 1923, and the first loans made February 13 of that year, making their business life still not quite twelve months.

Commenting on this gratifying growth, C. N. Elder, secretary and manager of the association, under whose leadership it was organized, states that the Golden State Building Loan Association has at the present time more assets than half of the 130 building loan associations in California, the total resources of the company standing at $300,198.76 on December 31, 1923.

Officers and Directors
Following is the complete list of officers, directors and members of the loan committee:

Dan Campbell, president, chairman Community Savings & Com'l.
Bank and director Los Angeles
Title Insurance Co.; W. E. Lee, vice-president, president First National Bank; G. N. Elder, secretary, manager of the association;
R. F. Kitterman, treasurer, vice-president Security Trust & Savings Bank; W. S. Perrin, director, president Glendale Savings Bank; E.
C. Pandey, director, president
Pandey Dry Goods Co.; Roy L.
Kent, director, general contractor and builder; W. E. Evans, attorney, director Glendale State Bank;
A. J. Lockwood, assistant secretary.

The Loan Committee follows:
J. R. Bentley, Bentley Lumber
Co.; W. E. Hewitt, capitalist; W.
J. Clendenin, capitalist; Geo. B.
Karr, manufacturer. Thomas A.
Wright, capitalist.

Troops Will Remain
At Marion, Decision

MARION, Ill., Jan. 10.—Adjutant General Carlos Black is expected to return to Springfield today but without ordering the return of the troops summoned here by threat of sectional trouble growing out of wholesale dry raids. He declared that troops would not be withdrawn today.

Sheriff George Galligan, whose appeal to Governor Small brought the three companies of National Guardmen to Marion, in a formal statement charged that back of the raids, in which Ku Klux Klan members state they gave full cooperation, would be found contempt for rights of citizens and actual crimes.

$1,000,000 PROJECT

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Jan.
10.—This city has been selected as the site of a new hotel and motor bus station to be erected by the Pickwick State Company at a cost of approximately $1,000,000, according to J. S. Rodman, Pickwick representative here. The Santa Barbara station will be one of a chain along the Pacific coast to be organized to facilitate stage travel, it is said.

It is believed the tidal wave was caused by the numerous earthquakes which have visited Italy recently.

Checks Vote on Bonds and Contracts; Little Change
From First Total

The first business to come before the City Council this morning was the canvassing of the vote cast at Tuesday's sewer bond election.

Results were practically the same as announced by The Evening News early Tuesday night, and the formality of canvassing the vote was gone through with in order to comply with the law.

Councilmen Asa Hall and C. E.
Kimlin acted as canvassers, and Councilmen A. M. Davis and W.
A. Horn as tellers.

The final count showed that the bonds carried by a 10 to 1 ma-

Wants More Pay

W. T. Tower appeared before the City Council this morning with a request and recommendation that the salary of members of the various election boards serving last Tuesday be increased from 25 cents to 50 cents per hour, with a maximum of $10.

He stated that he thought the remuneration not commensurate with the cost of living.

The matter was referred, on motion of Councilman Horn, to the committee of the whole.

URGE EXPULSION
OF GLAND FAKES

Alleged Specialists Scored By Medical Journal In Scathing Editorial

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.— Expulsion of "advertising alleged gland specialists" from the medical societies was urged in the leading editorial of the January issue of the California State Journal of Medicine, published today.

Tracing through the mazes of antiquity the many "life-giving elixirs" which throughout the ages have been heralded as "fountains of youth," the editorial said:
"The youth-restoring milk from the goats of antiquity has been replaced by an easier, but no more certain, use of the goats' glands."

"Aged flappers, male and female, with the sagging tissues of their necks 'hooked up' by surgeons and their exposed wrinkles ironed out by massage until they look like billkins, insure plenty of procreancy that is utilized as 'news.' As 'exhibits' they apparently back in the notoriety they gain from the pathetic exposition of their pictures and senile statements to the public."

GREAT TOTAL FOR COAST
BUILDING

Heavy Increase Over Record
For 1922; Glendale Is Among Leaders

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—
With a grand total of $492,049-908 in building permits issued during 1923 in fifty-four cities of the Pacific coast states, an increase of more than 38 per cent in building activities is shown for the year just ended over the total figures of these cities for 1922, according to figures contained in the Pacific Coast section of the National Monthly Building Survey of S. W. Straus & Co., issued today.

The December grand total $41,645,570, for these fifty-four cities included in the survey is 51 per cent greater than the December total for 1922, and shows a 15-per cent gain over November of 1923.

Make Great Gains
Utah, with four cities reporting, showed the greatest relative annual gain, 53 per cent, while California, with thirty-five cities reporting, came second, with a gain of 42 per cent over 1922. Washington gained 20 per cent, Oregon 17 per cent, Arizona 14 per cent over the previous year. The annual gains of the larger cities are:
Los Angeles, 56 per cent; San Francisco, 3 per cent; Portland,
11 per cent; Seattle, 16 per cent;
Salt Lake, 34 per cent; Long Beach, 68 per cent; Oakland, 12 per cent, and San Diego, 21 per cent.

This year's total for Los Angeles, $200,133,181, is 40 per cent of the grand total from the fifty-four cities in the survey. California's total, $414,887,500, is 84 per cent of the whole. Washington, Oregon and Utah reported December totals smaller than those of November, while California and Arizona showed substantial gains for the closing month of the year.

SALARY

Asks Successor Be Chosen
Soon as Possible; No Action Yet Taken

William H. Reeves, city manager of Glendale, today formally notified Mayor Spencer Robinson and the City Council of his intention to quit his municipal position in the near future.

City Manager Reeves requested the mayor and City Council to select his successor
as quickly as possible in order that he might assist him in becoming familiar with the duties of the office.

The city manager, in discussing his resignation with a reporter for The Glendale Evening News, stated that he had notified the City Council several months ago of his desire to resign, but had remained "on the job" to assist with the sewer bond campaign.

Members of the City Council did not announce this morning they had a successor to the city manager.

Issues Statement
In announcing his resignation
City Manager Reeves said:

"I notified the City Council several months ago of my desire to be relieved of my duties at an early date, but on account of the paramount importance of the sewer bond issue to our city and my desire to do all within my power for the bonds, I could not consistently leave before the successful termination of the campaign last Tuesday.

"While my work as manager of Glendale has been both interesting and absorbing, I have reason to believe that I can better myself in other lines here, or in the same line elsewhere. In this connection I might state that I have

PORTSMOUTH, England, Jan.

British grand fleet. "We do not know exactly just what happened

W. H. Smith of this port told In-

"Searchers are sweeping the

L-24 had additional men on board

how many there were in all."

"Something happened during a tempt to Rescue Child Ends Fatally For Both

JOSEPH, Ore., Jan. 10.—Two are dead and two seriously burned as the result of a fire which destroyed the home of George M.
Tucker here last night. The fire was caused by an explosion of coal dust in a heating stove.

When Mrs. Tucker rushed to the rescue of her 4-year-old grandson, Grant, in an adjoining bedroom, she was overcome by smoke and burned to death holding the young boy, who also lost his life, in her arms.

Tucker, after being knocked to the floor by the force of the explosion, succeeded in rescuing a small niece, but not until both had suffered serious burns about the body.

Welcomed Home
A warm welcome was extended to two of their number by the members of Chapter L. P. E. O., yesterday, at the meeting of the chapter at the home of Mrs. A. C.
Read, 360 West Broadway. Mrs.
H. D. Goss, the president of the chapter, arrived home Tuesday from a two months' visit with her parents at Windham, Minn., and Mrs. William Ramsay returned recently from a two years' trip around the world.
Other special guests were Mrs.
Helen Townsend, of Iowa, past supreme president; Mrs. Allen, of Nebraska, and Mrs. Elizabeth Downing, of Chapter BA, Glendale.
With Mrs. Goss, the president, in the chair, the chapter heard reports of various committees. Of special interest were reports of the committees which brought Christmas cheer to many unfortunates.
Mrs. Goss greeted the chapter members and told of her visit in Minnesota with her parents, who celebrated their golden wedding
while she was there.
The philanthropic committee are following a well-organized program and are accomplishing much along these lines.
Very helpful and inspiring were the words of greeting from Mrs.
Helen Townsend, past supreme president and chairman of the educational fund committee for a number of years. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Downing also responded to words of greeting.
Following the luncheon, the regular program of the day was conducted and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman of the year book committee, presented Mrs. William Ramsay, former president of the Tuesday Afternoon club and a member of this chapter, who gave a wonderful description of countries visited in her recent travels.
She told of her visit to Japan,
China, New Zealand and only touching on India, Egypt, gave a little of Continental Europe and described more fully her stay in England, Ireland and Scotland.
So great was the interest that the chapter hopes to persuade Mrs. Ramsay to continue these talks and take up other countries which she visited.
In response to the call of the philanthropic chairman, Mrs. P.
E. Maxwell, the chapter brought groceries for the Glendale Welfare bureau.
The chapter spent the day sewing for the Glendale Auxiliary of the Children's Hospital society.
Luncheon was served by the hostesses of the day, Mesdames A.
C. Read, H. E. Bartlett, R. A.
Blackburn and Norman Hunt.

Reading Circle
A most inspiring meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle was held yesterday at the public library. Mrs. H. V. Henry, chairman, presided over the meeting.
Tentative plans for a lecture course from the extension department of the southern branch of the University of California were outlined, and favorably considered. The course is to be sponsored by the Glendale Parent-Teachers' Association Federation.
A review of an article, "Antioch: An Adventure in Education," by Ida Clyde Taylor, was given by Mrs. C. W. Taylor.
It was announced that the circle will have a luncheon sale on the next meeting day.
Mrs. Henry read further from
"Play and Education," by Lee, and announced that next week the new book, "Schools of Tomorrow," by John Dewey, will be begun.
Mrs. Alma J. Danford spoke briefly of the splendid work of the circle and expressed regret that there was not a larger attendance at the meetings.

MONTROSE NEW STRUCTURES ERECTED IN 1923

Substantial Growth of Town Recorded By Progress
in Many Quarters

To the year 1923 goes credit for the most substantial and prosperous up-building of both businesses and homes that Montrose has known in the comparatively short time since the town began to grow. All of the substantial business buildings on the north side of Honolulu avenue west of Montrose were erected during that time. Many of the business firms occupying buildings built before the year 1923 were established during the past year, such as the Montrose State Bank and the Montrose Furniture Company.

Buildings erected in this section include three one-story store buildings erected by Theo. Belanger at the corner of Montrose and Honolulu avenues; a two-story brick building by C. J. Reed; two stores built by D. W. Dranger; Anderson and Tupper's garage and sales rooms, and the Oakmont Service Station. It has been estimated by business men who are familiar with the territory that fully two-thirds of the present business was developed during the past year.

During this period a new brick school building was also added to the list, giving Montrose the first building of its own for that purpose. This building provides a meeting place for all community affairs such as Chamber of Commerce, community sings and mass meetings. Residences in all sections of the community have been built in such profusion that a record is impractical. Most of these have been of the substantial and ornamental class, ranging from the small bungalow for $3000 on up to more pretentious structures.

La Crescenta Busy
In the La Crescenta district the same activity has been apparent. A Community church, school building, a brick business block at Montrose avenue and Los Angeles street occupied by the La Crescenta Feed and Fuel Company are the most noticeable buildings of the past year. New centers of population have been established by the many new homes that have been built. La Crescenta has extended the western boundary about two miles, and the two towns of Montrose and La Crescenta have grown together to such an extent that, to the casual observer, they are one community. Similar interests bring the residents of both towns together on many occasions.

Gas mains have been laid and are in service in Montrose and parts of La Crescenta. These are being extended to serve the new residence districts as they form. Sub-division activity has been successful and profitable to operators. Acreage bought less than two years ago for a few hundred dollars has increased in value to several thousand dollars and has been sold and re-sold many times, with a profit to each seller. Present indications are that developments in this territory would force the extension of the Glendale-Montrose railway line west from its present terminus in La Crescenta.

Several social organizations have also been formed since 1923 appeared on the scene. An American Legion Post, an athletic club, a social club and a community sing have been organized. These furnish diversified entertainment to all who care to attend. Indications are that this year will see even greater development than last. There are several buildings in the course of construction and several are being planned. Business development in La Crescenta especially is expected to increase this year.

Bible Battle Looms in Meeting at L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—With a forecast of "warmth to come," by Dr. Frank Dyer, who presided, implying a possible split between fundamentalist and modernist in Bible interpretation, such as is raging throughout the east, the Pacific-Southwest Theological conference for the promotion of Christian thinking convened here late yesterday for a three-day session. Portraying a "God who is bound to succeed in anything He undertakes," Dr. Robert Freeman, Pasadena Presbyterian minister, declared that he didn't worry much about the miracles of Jesus. "I have an idea that God does not ask me to receive that which my intellect rejects," he said, at the same time citing instances of individual regeneration accomplished through Christianity, and stated these as even greater miracles than those set forth in the Bible.

Anton Giesen of 110 North Resh street, Anaheim, is a patient at the Glendale Research hospital, suffering with a severe laceration on his head, received yesterday when he fell from a scaffold at 406 East Colorado street. The accident happened in the forenoon at a building on which he was working for the Betz Brothers company. When he fell some time tumbled on top of him, severely injuring his head. He was taken at once to the Glendale Research hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from painful injuries to the head. Fortunately his skull was not fractured.

BURBANK

VOTERS TO HAVE THEIR INNING

Local and General Elections Are Reasons for Big Registration

With municipal, state and national elections looming on the political horizon, Burbank voters will be required to register anew, even though they have not changed their residence since the last registration.

Deputy registrars are now out canvassing the territory and will continue their work until February 1, after which those who have not been recorded will have to appeal to the city clerk. Requirements for registration are: A year's residence in the state, ninety days in the county and thirty days in the precinct. The election books will be closed thirty days before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in April and is to test city officials to take the places of the following Burbank citizens whose terms are about to expire: Trustees Hams, Jackson, Nielsen; F. S. Webster, city clerk, and C. B. Fischer, city treasurer.

Country Club to Elect

What promises to be a lively election will be staged by members of the Sunset Canyon Country Club at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, January 12, in the auditorium of the Thomas A. Edison school, when a board of directors for the coming year will be chosen. Two rival boards are in the field, it is understood, eager to support the present manager of the club, J. H. Bridges, and one favoring a different type of management.

Only members in good standing will be allowed to vote, admission being by the 1924 membership tickets. The following set of candidates has been proposed by the nominating committee appointed by the directors of the club: W. J. Riley, president of the State Bank of Burbank; A. R. Graham, member of the real estate firm of Graham & Haefner of Burbank; D. H. Smith, manager of the L. A. Trust & Savings Bank of Glendale; H. J. Treiman, manager of the Angelus hotel at Los Angeles; W. F. Robbins, manager of the Lakeview hotel at Westlake Park, Los Angeles; J. D. Farquhar of Hollywood and J. H. Bridges, at present director and manager of the club.

Another set of nominees, placed in line by the "Boosters' Club," comprises: Dr. C. S. Steelman, Joseph Klebert, W. R. Covington, H. A. Friske, Hugh F. Brady, Bert Rawlinson and H. Thompson. H. S. Boys' and Girls' Contest. In a novel drive for additional P-T. A. members for the Burbank high school, the pupils will cooperate in a contest to see which can secure the more. The winning side will be presented a party by the losing side, to be given January 24, which is Robert Burns' birthday.

The contest closes January 16 and already the rivalry is intense.

EAGLE ROCK

DEPUTY TRAILS VOTERS TO LAIRS

Careful Canvass Made By Deputy Mrs. J. C. Reiter in Suburban Section

A canvass of Eagle Rock is now being conducted under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Reiter, who has been appointed deputy registrar for this district. With many important elections, municipal, state and national, coming in the near future, she feels it is important that every resident of the community qualify to vote.

Mrs. Reiter is now taking registrations at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the City Hall on East Colorado boulevard. In order to register, a year's residence in the state is required, ninety days in the county and thirty days in the precinct.

PLAN FORMATION OF NEW CIRCUIT

Reorganized League Would Also Include Glendale's
White Sox Team

Announcement was made late yesterday afternoon that the formation of a new baseball league, backed by the Southern California Baseball Managers' association, would in all probability include Glendale. While the announcement will come as a surprise to many of the fans, the wise ones have predicted for some time that the fine, new home of the White Sox on San Fernando road would not be given over entirely to amateur ball this summer.

A meeting, held at Santa Ana Monday night, secured the entry of that city. Work on construction of a $15,000 ball park will be started there immediately.

"It is certain that the league will go through," said Frank Kerwin, partner of Grant Leischner in the Glendale ball park and secretary of the Southern California Baseball Managers' association, one of the best known ball men of the southern part of the state. Just what teams will be entered is still somewhat indefinite, but Glendale will not be left out whatever decision the authorities arrive at.

Seek Recognition
"The question before us now is getting recognition and a class C or class D rating from the National commission, or playing independent ball. If we play the latter, the St. Louis Giants will be included, as they are a wonderful drawing card and play a great game. Of course, if we entered organized baseball they could not be in the league."

Tentative plans include the entry of Glendale, Santa Ana, Long Beach, San Diego and Santa Monica, where Larry Arnold of Sawtelle will build a new park, transferring or combining the Sawtelle franchise. If the league is recognized by the baseball pooh-bahs, the choice of the other town will be between Bakersfield, Fresno and Ventura.

The present plans call for three games per week, one on Saturday and a double header on Sunday. Some of the managers favor a game on Wednesday instead of the Sunday bargain, and this matter will be threshed out later.

To Develop Youngsters
It has been known for some time that the Coast league favored the formation of such a minor circuit, where they could develop their youngsters, and still at the same time have them under the paternal eye. It is certain that if the league is formed it will have the backing of the Williams' circuit, and this will go a long way to making it popular.

"We will put up the same class of ball that the Triple A winter league has produced," said Frank Kerwin this morning. "Many players can make more by working and playing three games per week than they can by going into baseball for a living, and for that reason the class of ball handed out to the patrons will be first-class."

"We intend to get going at once so that the Coast league and others will know that we mean business. Glendale is sure to have a berth in the league, and every effort will be made to make the White Sox a winning team."

ISLAND TRIP OF AGGIES IS ENDED

Oregon Grid Squad is Home
After Two Post Season
Games at Honolulu

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Oregon Aggie football squad, in charge of Coach R. B. Rutherford and Trainer Mike Butler, were en route back to Corvallis today following their return here last yesterday from Honolulu, where they played two post-season games.

The Aggies met defeat in both games but had no alibis to offer on their arrival here. The invaders had a rough voyage out, and many members of the squad were sick most of the trip. This, coupled with the warm weather in Honolulu, undoubtedly had its effect on the team's play.

The trip back was a pleasant one and the members of the squad returned to the states in fine shape and eager to return to their studies.

While Rutherford was non-committal, it was indicated that the Aggies probably would not accept another invitation to play in Hawaii because of the length of time required for the trip.

FIGHT RESULTS

At Havana—Chief Matoquah, Oklahoma Indian, knocked out Antonio Plerro, second round. Ed Palmer, New York, second round.

Citizens living in Rabaul, Pomerania, need no furnaces, as it is said the city is built at the foot of a partly extinct volcano and at times the temperature rises 37 degrees in a little over two hours.

"GORGEOUS GEORGES" TO RETURN HERE

By Dick Dorgan

"GORGEOUS GEORGES" CARPENTIER
HAS DECIDED TO VISIT OUR SHORES AGAIN IN QUEST OF A LITTLE DOUGH AND HIS LONG LOST LIGHT-HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE WORLD

Georges is, without a doubt, the greatest showman in the world. He has a most appealing personality, a winning smile and a glorious SOCK in that old right mitt of his; therefore, the fans always want to get an eyeful of the famous frog.

Tex Rickard is as busy as a one-eyed cat in a fish market with the crowd that's anxious to meet "Carp."

Gibbons, Tunney, Greb, Mike McTeague and Battling Siki all want a crack. Siki's manager insists that his tar baby should have first say, having a knock-out victory over Georges. McTeague argues that he holds the championship and should get the match. Billy Gibson, Gene Tunney's manager, says he has Tex's word that the battle will be between "Carp" and Tunney.

Tom Gibbons would be the best one. But this fight would be too big an affair to hold indoors. It will have to wait till the summer-time, as it will be a 75,000 to 100,000 gate, and 15,000 is about the best indoors.

Battling Siki, although he put up a remarkably game fight with Kid Norfolk, showed he has great possibilities, but is still pretty crude in the manly art.

It is fairly certain that Gene Tunney, by beating Harry Greb, will meet the famous foreigner late this month or early in February.

Rumors, Denials, Alibis

By F. A. GRAHAM

Barnabe pitched Sawtelle to a 3 to 1 win over the Glendale White Sox on New Year's day. In other words, Barnabe and Sawtelle won the game by head work, hand work and foot work, not to mention bat work. The next day Frank Kerwin reports the game and says: "Oscar Reichow, boss of the Angels, Frank Isbell, owner of Wichita in the Western League, and several other ball authorities were unanimous in declaring that Barnabe deserved the verdict."

All of which must be most gratifying to Mons. Barnabe, especially after all the labor he contributed. Ain't it a grand feeling to know that the authorities are willing to give you something you have already earned?

Dispatches from Tampa, Fla., state that Jack Dempsey, the rising young pugilist, has been invited to train at the artillery field there. An artillery field is our idea of a very appropriate place for Mr. Dempsey to train. His next opponent, if any, will probably think Jack has the artillery concealed in his gloves before the party is over.

Luis Firpo, South America's heavyweight champ, who nearly dived Dempsey from his world title at their fight, says that he and Erminio Spalla, Italy's champion, will do battle on February 24 at Buenos Aires. Firpo says he will receive 40 per cent of the gate receipts and Spalla will get 200,000 lire. All of which shows that the

THE GLENDALE

"Black Shadows" shows at the Glendale Theatre for the last times today, and many hundreds will avail themselves of the opportunity to see this unique Pathe picture of sirens and savages of the South Seas.

"Black Shadows" is filled to the brim with interest and there are also no small amount of thrills. Picture Chief Gau, leader of the fierce tribe in the Solomon Islands, leading the attack on a hostile tribe. In their picturesque war canoes, the warriors present a real thrill by themselves by the rhythmic sweep of the paddles. And battle practice is actually as fierce as the battle itself.

"Black Shadows" shows the different dancing steps of the South Sea fox-trotters—but what records they establish! One dance lasts for thirty days and thirty nights.

In addition, Burt Earle's celebrated "Girl Revue" shows again today at the Glendale Theatre, where it has proved a big hit.

THE GATEWAY

Harold Lloyd, in his latest Pathe picture now showing at the Gateway Theatre, has seized upon the possibilities of farce comedy in a South American revolution. The result is a 100 per cent riot.

"Why Worry?" was written by Sam Taylor, assisted by Ted Wilde and Tim Whelan. Fred Newmeyer and Sam Taylor directed. The picture introduces Jobyna Ralston as Lloyd's leading woman. A figure in the cast that is new to the screen as John Aasen, declared to be the biggest man in the world. He is 8 feet 9 1/2 inches tall and weighs 460 pounds—without his shoes. There are said to give John Aasen an avoirdupois "on the lot" rounding out the figure to 500. It can easily be imagined this human mountain makes a highly diverting foil for the slender and agile Lloyd throughout the action of "Why Worry?"

LEGION TOSSERS READY FOR FRAY

Game With Huntington Park to Test Ability of Local Cage Team

Considerably brightened by their victory over South Western university by a 24-21 score Monday night, the local American Legion cage tossers will go in to the fray with Huntington Park tonight full of pep and confidence. Huntington Park has a mighty strong quintet, and has showed up well in their last few games.

The locals' only defeat of the season was administered at the hands of the Santa Monica squad, the last year's champs. While not trying to alibi their defeat, they state that they were handicapped by the lack of real opposition to develop their team work and basket shooting.

The entire squad has been out to practice for two nights since last Thursday's game, and are in fine fettle for tonight's fracas. The line up will be the same as in the Santa Monica game. Wheelon, Brown and Leggett will play forward; Bunker and Beach center; Austin, Dick and Hibbard, guards.

The referee's whistle will blow promptly at 8 o'clock at the high school gym.

Contracting Firm Is Swamped With Orders

Business in Glendale is so good for Dahman & Son, builders, 629 North Geneva street, that their organization is swamped with work, and they are refusing to undertake any additional commissions until they can complete what they are now doing. A. J. Dahman declares that the houses they are erecting are so attractive that they are snapped up by home-seekers as soon as they are finished, and in many cases before the finishing touches have been put on.

The last house they built, a seven-room Spanish stucco, was sold to Mrs. Bessie Gulick, who came here recently from Brooklyn, N. Y., and plans are now ready for the erection of another commodious residence in the Belhurst tract.

Hinsdale Golf Club Gets Western Tourney

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The Hinsdale Golf Club has been awarded the 1924 championship tourney of the Western Golf Association. This is the first time in three years that Chicago has been the scene of this amateur tournament, which ranks second only to the national championship. Chick Evans, Chicago, is present champion of the Western association, having won the title eight times, a record.

DOUBLE BILL IS OFFER TO FANS

White Sox to Meet St. Louis
Giants, K. C.'s to Play
San Fernando Nine

Local fans have a twin bill offered them this week-end at the White Sox home on San Fernando road. Saturday afternoon Mike Donlin's crew will stage a second battle with the St. Louis Giants, who nosed the locals out, 2-1, last Sunday in one of the best games ever witnessed in Southern California.

Manager Cobb of the colored boys states that McClure, the great Cleveland pitching ace, will be on even the count. If Doc's arm is not in shape, Callard will probably receive the assignment. An effort will be made to get Jack Adams from Universal City to do the receiving.

On Sunday when the White Sox are traveling, the Glendale K. C.'s will tackle the San Fernando team in a San Fernando league fixture. These two teams have staged several real battles this season, and next Sunday's pastime promises to be full of thrills. Lefty Bacon will probably do the hurling for the locals.

Both games are called at 2:15.

Hoppe and Cochran
In Contest Tonight

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—Willie Hoppe, champion 18.2 balk line billiardist, will be called upon tonight to guard his throne from the adroit cue of Welker Cochran, Pacific coast star. The first block of 500 points will be played tonight, the second tomorrow night and the final 500 points Saturday night. Followers of the game predict Cochran will be a dangerous opponent for the title holder.

Hoppe and Cochran played to a tie in the New York tournament. Hoppe won the play-off in Chicago. Cochran challenged and the match starting tonight is the result.

Congregational Church Holds Annual Meeting After Elaborate Dinner

The members of the First Congregational Church and their friends gathered together last night for the annual meeting. They first sat down to a splendid dinner and enjoyed a social hour together with a community sing led by J. Arthur Meyers. The meeting was then called to order by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Calderwood.

The clerk of the church read a resume of the official minutes of the year and reported a net gain in membership during the year of 102, making the total membership at present 382.

The work of the department of Missions was reported by its chairman, Mrs. C. H. Schulte. Missionary interest has been strengthened in all departments of the church, especially among the young people and in the church school. A school of missions was carried on for six consecutive Sunday evenings during October and November with an average attendance of over 100, and it is planned that such a school is to become a regular institution of the church.

For the department of business of the church, H. W. Yarrick reported all bills paid, and presented the budget for the new year as recommended by the trustees. This budget was unanimously adopted and amounts to $12,100 for current expenses and $1500 for benevolences. W. L. Jencks, chairman of the department of religious education, reported the church school completely departmentalized since coming into the new building, and in good working order with an enrollment of over 400.

The Christian Endeavor society, under the leadership of Miss Ruth Schinzel, and with Donald Blanche as president, is doing good work among the young people.

Social Service Active
The department of social service has promoted various social affairs during the year and also participated in various local social service activities. Miss Helen Ohman has been chairman of this department a short time, and, as he will continue in that office the new year, has plans under way for more activities in the future.

A short time ago a Men's club was organized, and this has steadily grown, and is to become one of the vital organizations of the church. H. C. Wilcox is the president, and he gave the report for the club. Among the movements sponsored by the men is the organization and supervision of the Boy Rangers, interesting the young boys of the church. The pastor gave a brief report of his regular pastoral duties, also of the work of the department of worship and fellowship, of which he is chairman. The department of evangelism being temporarily without a chairman, he also made it evident that this important work was not being forgotten nor neglected.

Officers Elected
The nominating committee presented the following names as officers for the new year, and they were elected: Deacons, Hartley Shaw, A. M. Green, W. L. Jencks and A. E. Angier; deaconesses, Mrs. R. W. Haight, Mrs. Emma Alvord, Mrs. Minnie Kinyon and Mrs. Agnes Welch; trustees, E. D. Yarrick, R. G. Boyles, R. W. Haight, G. W. Blanche and H. W. Yarrick; treasurer, Miss Grace Hooker; clerk, Mrs. O. E. Von Oven; auditor, Philip Buettner; chairman of department of missions, Mrs. G. H. Schulte; chairman of department of religious education, Mrs. H. W. Yarrick; chairman of department of social service, Miss Helen Ohman; members of cabinet at large, Blake Franklin, G. H. Schulte, W. C. Wilcox and E. L. Schuyler; nominating committee, Blake Franklin (chairman), W. E. Lusby, A. M. Green, A. D. Cross and E. D. Yarrick.

At the close of the meeting the membership felt that, with the same spirit of progress and cooperation that had been shown during the past year, and with an added spiritual growth, the new year could not fail to be one of achievement in all things that the church should stand for.

Impressive Tribute Paid to L. W. Chobe at Meeting By Many Speakers

L. W. Chobe, builder of Glendale's prize-winning floats in the Pasadena Tournaments of Roses, was the honored guest at the Glendale Rotary club at the Egyptian Village this noon. President George B. Karr had Arthur Dibern take charge of this portion of the program and talks on Mr. Chobe's service were made by Attorney Owen C. Emery, James M. Rhoades, Dr. Z. Warren Newton and the Rev. E. E. Ford.

Attorney Emery asserted the advertising value of Glendale's floats on New Year's day was worth $100,000. Dr. Newton said the "fairland" pictured was a reality to him who had been attracted to this city six years ago by one of Glendale's prize-winning floral entries.

Rev. Ford pointed to the fact that 85 per cent of all we know comes to us through what we see and Mr. Chobe was an artist at giving expression to this city in God's own things, the flowers, mountains and everlasting water.

Paul E. Stillman, in a speech on Rotary education, said that Rotarianism is a challenge to the spiritual side of its members who are a part of a great movement in the world which is spreading the heaven of unselfishness.

Visitors Are Present
Visiting Rotarians included Charles E. Royal, of Vancouver, B. C.; E. C. Millikan, of Murphysboro, Ill.; J. J. King, of Burbank; John R. Rude, of Marshalltown, Ia.; and J. Will Johnson, of Pueblo, Colo. Several other visitors were introduced and Secretary Rene Olin read three letters of appreciation from the crippled children in whom the club has a fatherly interest.

An invitation was accepted by the club to participate in the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce the evening of January 22 at the Tuesday Afternoon club at which time Rev. J. Whitcomb Brounger will talk on the subject of "Play Ball."

ORDINANCE BANS

VENDING DEVICES

Slot Machines to Be Barred From City by Vote of City Councilmen

An emergency ordinance passed this morning by the City Council, Councilmen Hall, Horn and Kimlin voting for the measure and Mayor Robinson and Councilman Davis against it, forbids the operation within the city limits of all so-called "vending" machines.

Councilman Horn, who led the fight against the machines, stated that he was convinced they were gambling machines, and did not intend to have them in the city. He was strongly supported by Councilman Kimlin.

The mayor and Councilman Davis were also of the opinion that they should be kept out of Glendale, but thought that, inasmuch as the owners of the machines had chartered their operation to comply with the city ordinance, and purchased a large stock of gum to be given through the machines, thirty days should be given the operators to clear up this stock, and recompense the owners for the expense they had incurred.

McBryde's Plea
James F. McBryde, representing the owners, stated that Glendale was the only city requiring that gum be given in the machines, and if the ordinance was passed this morning, it would result in a loss to the owners, when they had acted in good faith with the city.

After lengthy arguments for and against the striking out of the word "emergency" from the ordinance, it was finally adopted as an emergency measure.

SUSPECT CAPTURED

He was invalided out of the army and came to Southern California in 1901, and made Pasadena his residence for twenty years, where he served in many different capacities in the city government, rising to be commissioner of public works.

He served through the World war as a captain of engineers, and has three campaign badges, the Spanish-American, Philippine Insurrection and the World War. He has always been an enthusiastic booster for Glendale. Fraternally Mr. Reeves is an Elk, a Mason, and is a member of the Kiwanis club.

TUJUNGA ELECT OFFICERS OF KIWANIS CLUB

A. C. Stover Chosen President of New Organization for Coming Year

Final organization of a Kiwanis club of Tujunga has been effected and officers have been elected to serve the coming year. Frank Kean, international representative of Kiwanis, read the recommendations for officers by the committee appointed at a previous meeting and the men recommended were chosen. A. C. Stover, proprietor of the Tujunga Drug store, was elected president; John Steven McGroarty, journalist and author of the Mission Play, first vice-president; J. M. Goode, realtor, second vice-president; Robert D. Walker, of the Tujunga Valley Bank, treasurer; Carroll W. Buckner, secretary; W. J. Buckley, district trustee; Harry W. Zachan, realtor, sergeant-at-arms; L. H. Perner, D.D.S., Leo Smith, M. F. Gilmer, Earl C. Brunner, Homer Rice, G. L. Aiken, and Fred Aze were elected directors. J. N. Stanford of Glendale, plans immediately to build a one-story brick business block on Sunset boulevard at Greeley street. It has been stated that a grocery will occupy one part and the other will be leased to other business. Kilbourn and Sylvia have added another section to their Valley Garage building to accommodate a battery service station to be in the charge of Frank J. Janett.

Will Enlarge Church
Excavation work has been done for the addition to the Tujunga Community church and construction work is expected to be started soon. Nelson E. Jones will have charge of the carpenter work and will be assisted by H. F. Slayton. Eighteen new members were recently received into the church. Glenn Moore, formerly assistant pastor and now a student at San Anselmo theological seminary, has had charge of services in the absence of Dr. Stotts, who was recently married to Miss Minnie Bates and has been away on a wedding trip.

Members of the Tujunga Women's club have been studying the Spanish missions of California, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Mills. Many of the members related impressions they had gained in visiting some of the missions. The club will give a Valentine dance on the evening of February 14 at Legion hall, El Centro and Sunset boulevard. Old-fashioned square dances will be featured and costumes of ten years or more ago will be fashionable. Plans have been made by the Men's Brotherhood of the Tujunga Community church, to give a dinner for the members of the new Boy Scout troop now being organized. District Scout Executive Cheesman was recently in Tujunga and conferred with Rep. J. E. Stotts, J. A. Jenkins, H. E. Slayton and other members of the church in regard to the dinner. Wilbur Smith will be assistant to Scoutmaster Reslock and will help in organizing troop number two.

THUGS BEAT, ROB WOMAN OF COIN

Mrs. Herta Goldhoff Victim of Two Bandits Near Tujunga Home

TUJUNGA, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Herta Goldhoff of 165 West El Centro street, Tujunga, was held up and severely beaten by two thugs Tuesday night at 10:45 near her home. A purse containing $77 was taken and the woman is reported to be in a serious condition as a result of rough treatment at the hands of her assailants. According to Deputy Constable McCarty of Tujunga, who is investigating the hold-up, Mrs. Goldhoff alighted from the Los Angeles bus that arrives in Tujunga at 10:40 and proceeded from the corner of El Centro street and Michigan avenue toward her home. Two men suddenly appeared and knocked the woman down, taking her money. They are then reported to have attempted to further attack Mrs. Goldhoff, but were frightened away by her screams after kicking her repeatedly.

Describes Assailants
McCarty stated that the two men were described as Mexicans, one of muscular, heavy set stature about 35 years old, and the other as a man of slight build. One of the men is believed to be a Mexican living in Sunland and his movements are being checked by officers. McCarty has discovered that the suspect called for his mail at the Sunland postoffice Tuesday, but was not home that night.

Owner of Suit Case Is Sought by Police

Chief of Police John D. Fraser has in his possession an old fashioned telescope containing some old prints and photographs and wearing apparel apparently for a lady of advanced age.

It was found in the back yard of 402 West Lexington and had evidently been thrown there by thieves after some burglary. There is no name for identification purposes in the contents, and the chief has asked The Glendale Evening News to help find the owner.

COMMENT That's All

Bok's Peace Prize Award
Nothing New Is Offered
Real Need For Diplomats
Bungling Causes War

By Gil A. Cowan

Privileged morning newspapers were enabled to print the "winning plan" of the Bok Peace Prize award this week, and the much-heralded referendum of "the people" is now under way. Varied opinions are being expressed on the merits of the proposal, author as yet unknown, and after glimpsing through the publicity put out by Mr. Bok and his associates, the writer has an humble opinion of all his own. However, we shall pass it on to our readers, for they appreciate, no doubt, that which differs from the majority.

While other editors calmly announce that the selection made by the jury of award appears "a wise one," one cannot help but ask: "Is it wise for the United States of America?" or "Is it wise for world peace?" or "Is it wise from the standpoint of appeasing the international bankers who would sacrifice the autonomy of America for the profits to be made out of refinancing Europe at an all too early date?"

The whole scheme which Edward Bok, widely-heralded editor of Philadelphia, has advanced at this time savors of a gigantic attempt to coerce this nation into accepting not only the World Court, but a large part of the League of Nations idea, which neither we nor many millions of a same mind approve. Of course, Mr. Bok and his associates very cleverly would conceal their motives, if such they be, and perhaps we should not doubt their sincerity.

However, we are cynical—and as one of the soldiers in the World war, only a volunteer, if you please, we have a right to doubt the sincerity of any project which plans to promote peace through the fellowship of nations. It simply can't be done in a legal manner, and in this assumption you will agree when the map of the world's population clearly shows that the so-called civilized, Christian nations constitute but a mere handful of the total.

As a soldier we saw how utterly impossible it was for the allied troops to be billeted together; we saw how ably Germany, France, Italy, Greece and other nations defied the little group of dignitaries who drafted the treaty of Versailles; yes, we saw enough to read between the lines when the pro-league editors wrote of the Bok Peace Plan as follows: "Those who have expected the winning plan to suggest some new and striking proposition that had not been thought of before will be disappointed. In fact, the plan contains no new ideas at all, but only an assembly of points that have been amply discussed in different ways in the past. It is, in fact, a very clever welding together of the points upon which both the Democratic and Republican parties are most likely to be in substantial agreement. It would be in harmony with the reservations proposed by the United States Senate, and represents a feasible compromise between the positions of the two great political parties. It is in perfect accord with the dominant Republican position, and it also secures substantially all that the Democrats have striven for. What has already been rejected in the present plan of the league by either the people or by Congress has been omitted. It contains no new proposals."

Very carefully, perhaps, this writer did not essay to answer Mr. Bok's $100,000 prize contest. But had we done so, there would have been one underlying principle adhered to, and that is simply this: Reduce all diplomacy to what might be termed a common denominator. That theory, of course, is ambiguous, but in concrete practice it would mean, for instance, that those participating in international conferences, as well as representing the individual governments in foreign capitals, would be trained in diplomacy—and nothing else.

At present we send college professors, lawyers, bankers and newspapermen to foreign courts, to reparations sessions, to treaty conferences. And what is the result? Well, we get a hybrid of unworkable results. No conclusion is reached in their efforts because of a lack of inherent understanding. Yet it would be so easy for each nation to train diplomats who would travel, spending perhaps two years in each country, learning the language of the people, adapting themselves to the ideas of other nationalities, and in turn making themselves able and agreeable across the conference table. Really, we believe that there would be the shortest cut to world peace, although it would take a generation in which to train diplomats.

England has shown the way to peaceful ruling of a large part of the world by training its young men for governing a situation. It is even hinted they are prepared to govern the league, or world court, and it is an assumption which is justified. It attests the efficacy of training diplomats, although we honestly believe that England would do well to broaden even its scope of training.

Our conclusions in this matter are the result of observation. We have found that the man who has traveled and knows whereof he speaks is eminently successful in convincing others; he has learned to follow the middle course, and neither bow to tradition nor go off on a radical tangent. He is skilled in the art of tactful approach.

If Lenin or Trotsky had studied Chinese history for the same length of time they devoted their lives to Marxian theories, there would be no bolshevism in Russia today with such natural leaders.

SUNLAND RUSTIC RETREAT MARRIAGE SCENE

Couple Wed in Woodlands As County Boundaries Disrupt Plans

Choosing a rustic bridge across a miniature stream in one of the many beautiful canyons in the vicinity as the channel for their marriage ceremony, Miss Mary Toat and Ralph S. Shaffer were married at high noon Christmas day near the home of the bridegroom's parents in Fullerton. Miss Alice Shaffer and William Toat acted as maid of honor and best man.

The ceremony was originally planned to take place at the home of the parents of Mr. Shaffer, but at the last minute it was discovered that the license, which had been secured in Los Angeles, was not legal for use in Fullerton as that town is outside Los Angeles county. The scene was quickly changed and the guests were taken across the county line to the canyon retreat and the ceremony performed there.

Entertain Relatives
Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rice recently entertained at the Sunland home for a party of relatives and friends. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Daniels and grand-children, Kenneth and Iris; Mrs. Ada Williams, Miss Mercedes Forster, Frank Williams, John Bergman and Mr. and Mrs. Noel McVine.

COOKING COURSE PROVES POPULAR

Domestic Science Lectures Thronged by Women at Every Session

Interesting and educational demonstrations of the different phases of the culinary art have been enjoyed by large groups of Glendale women who have made the acquaintance this week of Mrs. Harriett Hall, domestic science expert, who has been giving instruction this week at the Enterprise Furniture company at 216 East Broadway.

So popular have Mrs. Hall's lectures been that she has been urged to remain in Glendale two additional days, Friday and Saturday, and at the two sessions 10 to 12 o'clock and 2 to 4 o'clock, on these days she will give additional instruction, augmenting the course presented earlier in the week.

Selection and preparation of wholesome and economical foods have been thoroughly studied by Mrs. Hall and her great success lies in her ability to impart this valuable information to others. In these two special days Mrs. Hall plans to take up many special features relating to the kitchen and the selection and preparation of food. A most cordial invitation has been extended to all Glendale women to meet her at the appointed hours and avail themselves of the opportunity of receiving expert advice in the art of cookery.

A method of treating wood with oil, a special varnish, and months of sun-drying is said to have produced material for violins which will produce tones equal to that of the famous Stradivari.

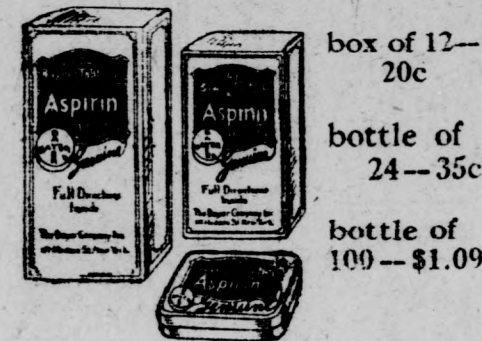

If Woodrow Wilson had possessed and practiced practical diplomacy in America, as well as in Europe, and others at Versailles had been likewise competent to have settled the war's problems, there would have been a much more peaceful world. Indeed, had the world been possessed of diplomats in 1914, the war would have lasted less than two weeks, we believe.

We have enough religions, enough isms, enough politics, enough military armament and enough everything else, it seems, but real diplomats. And upon their shoulders rests the promotion of world peace.

LA CRESCENTA

CLUBWOMEN HOLD REGULAR MEETING

Organization to Aid Missions For Building Mission Play's New Home

The La Crescenta Women's club held the regular monthly meeting yesterday, with a large number of members in attendance. Mrs. Ella Anderson, as corresponding secretary, announced she had a letter of resignation from Mrs. Richard Dewey of La Canada, who was taking this step on account of a number of local activities. The resignation was passed on with regrets. The letter of sympathy which the members of the club desired be written Mr. and Mrs. John Steven McGroarty in the loss of their home was reported attended to by Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Haskins, president, said in view of the fact Mr. McGroarty wished his friends to help in the building of the new playhouse, San Gabriel, rather than assist him rebuild his own home, it would be splendid if the club to buy a block in the new playhouse. This suggestion met with instant favor, so the coming generations of this community can point with pride to the block owned by the members of the Women's club of

Mr. Blanford made a plea for funds toward the purchase of a back drop and curtain for the stage, and as there will be graduating exercises in February, he felt it was the time to have the new things in place. It was voted on to pay $25 toward this fund.

Special Meeting
Mrs. Klatt, as chairman of the building committee, announced that, as this branch of club work would take considerable discussion, she would call a special meeting of all the club members for Wednesday next, at the usual hour, 2:30 p. m., in the school auditorium.

Hostesses for next month's meeting are to be Mesdames Slutes, Erwin and P. M. Brown. Mrs. A. F. Hopkins, who has charge of the community singing, spoke on the work being done at the weekly meetings. These sing are not the special property of either Montrose or La Crescenta, but belong to the entire valley, and all are most cordially invited to attend, every Thursday evening, in the Montrose schoolhouse, with the exception of the third Thursday. On that evening the sing will be held in La Crescenta schoolhouse. Mrs. Hopkins said the entertainment committee of the La Crescenta Improvement association is going to assist her in making a success of the community dance the Montrose Chamber of Commerce will put on at the La Crescenta schoolhouse the night of February 2. This is to be a sheet and pillowcase dance, and all must mask till a certain hour. The Women's club will give its hearty co-operation in the affair, which is being given for the fire truck fund.

Members having birthdays this month contributed their pennies to the birthday box, and much laughter was caused when one young matron deposited 50 cents. Mrs. Reynolds, chairman of the federating committee, read a letter published in the Federation paper, by Mrs. Urquhart, which was most interesting, as the theme of the letter was "What 4,000,000 women are doing in an organized way."

Mrs. Mary B. Darrow, as chairman of the program committee, introduced the well-known Glendale dramatic reader, Mrs. Evelyn Pierce, who swayed her audience at will with laughter at her clever rendition of "Heard at the Box Office," with subdued chuckles at "Kitty Casey's Graduation," and with sighs and sympathy at her reading of "My Little Boy," a haunting little melody in Italian dialect. The club members appreciated very much Mrs. Pierce's kindness in coming from Glendale to entertain them.

Mrs. Sumner of the Corn Products company gave a few words on the articles which she demonstrated, and presented each lady with a box of starch and some cooking pamphlets, while the doughnuts she had made found a ready sale, as did all the other toothsome dainties the members brought for sale.

A letter was read by Mrs. Haskins from Mrs. Morgan, asking all members of the club to be present at the Sunland clubhouse on January 22, Tuesday, at 2 p. m. Mrs. Conlin and Mrs. Collins had charge of the food sale, while Mrs. G. W. Carson, Mrs. W. H. Newton and

Open New Store
A new store and one that has a promise of growing rapidly has been opened on Pennsylvania avenue, at the end of the line. The new proprietors are Mr. and Mrs. Gould, who for some years conducted such a business in Akron, Ohio, and also in Los Angeles. Mr. Gould also has a splendid soda fountain in his store, and has a ready sale for ice cream and soft drinks. He will carry a complete line of the best groceries, and will meet outside market prices. The Goulds have bought several valuable pieces of property here, and expect to grow with the place.

All residents of this valley who are stockholders in the Crescenta Mutual Water company are urged to attend the mass meeting to night, at 8 o'clock, in the schoolhouse. Many issues of paramount importance are to be discussed, principally the one of forming a water district.

A slight collision occurred this morning when a Ford truck coming along Honolulu avenue collided with a brother coupe at Los Angeles corner. The coupe suffered a few damages, but Mr. Harris of Tujunga, who was driving the truck, will take care of the Ford coupe, owned and driven by W. Benjamin.

GAITY TO MARK STUDENT'S PARTY

Stag Affair at High School to Feature Wild West
All-Star Play

Even as "every dog has his day," so does every boy have his night. And the male students of the Glendale Union High School are going to have their night Friday evening, when their annual stag party is held. A rip-roaring program has been arranged by Arden Gingery, secretary of boys, and plenty of action is promised. The first event of the evening will be the inter-class basketball games. The freshmen and sophomores will play in one gym, while the juniors and seniors will engage in the other gymnasium. The games will be only 20 minutes long, as every second will be needed for the program. Following these two games, the winners of each will mix to determine the champ.

Program Is Varied
After the games, the "stags" will proceed to the auditorium, where a varied show will be staged. The Boys' Glee Club will warble, and the Junior orchestra will follow with a few recent selections. After this a wild west play with an all-star cast will be produced under the direction of Mr. Brewster, teacher of dramatics at the school. The scene will be laid out in the woody west and the action will consist of some Indians capturing a few society damsels. At this point the hero walks in, kisses one of the maidens on the cheek, and then bestows knockout drops on the redskins. A two reel comedy, which was secured through Mr. Rowe, will wind up the auditorium show.

After all this, comes the main event of the night, which will be, of course, the eats. According to Arden, 18 cents of the 25 cents cost of the ticket, goes for the grub, so it is a cinch that no one will starve.

Tickets are selling fast, and the stag party promises to rival the Girls' Stunt parties which were so successfully held a short time ago.

A three-wheeled electric motor chair with two speeds, six or twelve miles an hour, and operated like a tricycle, has been designed for the aged and invalids.

SINGERS RENDER MELODY AT CLUB

Immanuel Quartet Program at Exchange Luncheon Wins Applause

Delightful musical fare went with yesterday's noon luncheon of the Glendale Exchange club, held in Jensen's Egyptian Village, 133 North Brand boulevard, the melody-makers being none other than the celebrated Immanuel Male Quartet and Saxophone club, of Los Angeles, managed by M. L. Stewart.

They played, sang, produced music from invisible instruments and altogether amused the club members and their guests more than any similar aggregation of recent date. Particularly delightful was their instrumental number, "Double Eagle," and the "trombone" solo by Peter D. Eitzen.

The Immanuel quartet comprises in addition to Mr. Eitzen, Arthur L. Reimer and Joseph and David J. Kleinsasser. They were given a vote of thanks for their splendid entertainment.

Chairmen Named
The following are among additional committee chairmen announced at yesterday's meeting by President R. E. Johnston: W. C. Waring, publicity; George H. Thomas, finance; and D. Ripley Jackson, inter-city relations.

Among the guests present were Dr. Neil Rudy, brother of Mrs. Mary M. McEnany, with whom he has just returned from a trip around the world; H. M. Bennett, local Scot toparch and head of the H. M. Bennett Investment company; C. H. Bott, Carl Christie and Fred Mieding.

Dr. Rudy will be the guest of honor at the next meeting, which will be held next Tuesday noon, January 15, at Jensen's Village. He will talk on some of the experiences of his recent trip.

MRS. HUGHES FUNERAL
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—The body of Mrs. Rupert Hughes, who committed suicide several weeks ago, while aboard a boat near Honolulu, Indo-China, will arrive in San Francisco aboard the steamship President Wilson, February 7, it was announced here. Burial will take place in Winchester county, New York.

Telephone Operators Entitled to Praise

While every one else has been congratulated doubly over, there yet remains a vote of thanks to be given the telephone operators at the Glendale exchange of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company for the service they gave on Tuesday during and immediately following the sewer bond election.

During the day it was necessary for them, on account of a confusion of numbers, to intercept the calls on one line in order to get the people to the polls. In the evening they ably aided The Glendale Evening News in getting the returns by cutting into a special election wire with incoming reports. Their service was surely appreciated.

P. T. A. TO BRING LECTURE COURSE

Noted Educators to Deliver Series of Addresses on Child Topics

Decision to bring to Glendale during the month of March a course of lectures by noted educators from the extension department of the Southern Branch of the University of California, was made yesterday at the meeting of the executive board of the Glendale Parent-Teachers' Association Federation at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Mrs. E. B. Moore, president, directed the meeting, and Mrs. H. V. Henry outlined plans for the lecture course, considered favorably by the Mutual Benefit Reading circle at its meeting yesterday.

The course as outlined, will be given in some centrally located auditorium in Glendale, and it is expected that not less than 150 Glendale women will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the specialists that are scheduled to speak.

Included in the course will be: "Child Nutrition and Growth" by Dr. Helen Thompson; "The Period of Infancy" by Miss Barbara Greenwood; "The Pre-school Age" by Madeline Veverka; "The Elementary School Age" by Miss Ethel Salisbury; "The Adolescent Period" by Dr. Charles W. Wadde; "The Triple Alliance of Parent, Teacher and Child" by Prof. E. P. Mellner.

Will Sponsor Course
The P. T. A. Federation is to sponsor the course and tickets will be on sale for every resident of Glendale and neighboring communities, who are interested in attending. Mrs. E. B. Moore has assumed the responsibility of securing the place of meeting and charge of preliminary arrangements.

Another important action taken yesterday was in favor of the P. T. A. associations' providing entertainment for a big Community Service program to be given in March. Other organizations have been giving programs in connection with the Community Service work and the P. T. A. Federation is now pledging a program for March.

Mrs. E. S. McKee, chairman of finance, presented an invitation from the Royal Stock company asking all members of the board to attend the play they are giving this week at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, and also asking that the company be allowed to give a benefit play for the P. T. A.

Both offers were accepted and a vote of thanks taken for Mr. Royal for his generous and courteous offers. The benefit play will be given some Friday afternoon and evening or Saturday afternoon and evening, in order that all children may attend.

The Federation officers are to attend in a body the performance of "East is West" at the clubhouse tonight.

Vacancies on Board
Special mention was made of the coming election in March, when two members will retire from the high school board of trustees and two members will be elected. The Federation is vitally interested in who is to be chosen and yesterday Mrs. C. H. Whitney and Miss Eva Daniels were chosen to interview the retiring members as to possibilities of their candidacies for re-election and also to find out any other candidates, in order that they may address the Federation at its next meeting.

Appreciation for support given to the Glendale Welfare Bureau and Council was voiced by Mrs. L. T. Rowley.

Just before adjournment it was voted that a letter of sympathy be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Chandler upon the recent, tragic death of their daughter.

Senator Smith Heads Commerce Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The legislative deadlock in the senate over election of a chairman of the powerful interstate commerce committee was broken yesterday afternoon with dramatic suddenness by the election of Senator Ellison D. Smith, Democrat, of South Carolina.

Smith's election places the initiative for railroad legislation at this session largely upon the Democratic party notwithstanding the Republican control of Congress.

BOARD ENTUSES OVER BOND VOTE

Realtors Jubilant at Result Of Sewer Election and Mammoth Parade

Jubilant over the result of the sewer bond election was the keynote of the weekly luncheon of the Glendale Board yesterday, in the Egyptian Village, and the necessity for further co-operation, not only between the people of Glendale, but also between Glendale and Los Angeles, in the future development of this city was stressed by several speakers.

L. H. Myers, reporting for the advertising committee, stated that the cost, to the Realty Board, of the $10,000,000 Greater Glendale parade of last Saturday was under $300. Resolutions of thanks to the Scouts, Elks and Community bands, which included a number of the players of the Post-office band, and also to the Crescent Creamery company's band, were authorized by the board, in recognition of the manner in which these organizations had helped to make the parade the phenomenal success it proved to be. Register & Keno, sign painters, at 116 South Glendale avenue, were also commended for their action in cutting their bill for the banners that decorated the trucks, having allowed the committee a 50-per cent reduction on the materials used and charging only for the labor.

L. H. Myers, chairman of the parade committee, was also thanked by the organization for the work he had done in connection with the parade, and a vote of thanks was also passed to the Packer Auto company, 245 South Brand boulevard, for donating an automobile to enter in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena on New Year's day. The fact that no division in which the Realty Board could enter its float had been arranged by the Tournament directors was all that prevented its being displayed, according to D. Russell.

News Wins Praise
The Glendale Evening News was also warmly praised for the work it did during the sewer bond campaign, Cameron D. Thom, former president of the Realty Board, attributing much of the success in the election to the support given it by this paper.

A. T. Cowan, the publisher of The Glendale Evening News, declared that the work he and his paper had done was done solely for the interest of Glendale, his home town, and it has ever been the policy of this paper to work for what its owner believed to be for the good of this city.

Among those who were praised for the efforts they put forth to insure the passage of the sewer bonds were C. D. Thom, chairman of the sewer committee; C. W. Ingledue, precinct chairman; M. Walters, in charge of the transportation on election day, and every man who had formed a part of the smooth-working organization that contributed in such an impressive manner to the landslide that marked the passage of the bonds.

S. S. Gilhuly and Alfred Johnson were also commended for their work in collecting the board's share toward the Glendale float that won first prize at Pasadena. Declaring that the recent campaign was the best planned and most energetically conducted he had ever witnessed, Lon J. Haddock, of the Haddock-Nibley company, stated that four big events loomed on the immediate horizon for Glendale. One of these is the growth that is to come within the next year, now that the sewer bonds have been passed, a growth that will surpass the marvelous advance that this city has made under the handicap of its present sewage disposal system. Captain Haddock asserted, can now be invited here with the assurance that it will find every modern advantage that a city of this size should have.

Glendale's Future
Other important events, he added, are the order recently issued by the state railroad commission, instructing the Pacific Electric to begin work on its subway connecting Los Angeles and Glendale; the improvement of the transportation system through the electrification of the Glendale avenue line to connect with the yellow car system; and the development of the Mulholland Skyline drive, that will open up vast stretches of territory through the region it traverses. "Property values in Glendale," Mr. Haddock asserted, "have gone up one-third since the result of the bond election was announced."

T. W. Watson, former city manager, discouraged the fears that some may have felt that Los Angeles is waiting for an opportunity to grab Glendale, declaring that the former city would much prefer to see Glendale develop itself along the lines that will make for the greatest good to the city and its people and he urged closer co-operation between the two municipalities.

Work to Be Done
W. E. Hewitt, chairman of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, stated that the work that remains to be done on the sewers is one of the biggest contracts that Glendale ever undertook, and he pleaded for the men who have borne such an important part in the battle so far to stand by and help work out the problems that still face the city. This plea was also made by Secretary E. F. Sanders, who told of the business firms that are even now negotiating for locations here.

Canadian Vocalist to Entertain Club

Canadian club members and their friends are looking forward with much pleasure to February 7, when James Cranney, young Canadian singer from Alberta, Canada, will entertain the club in the K. P. hall on South Brand boulevard.

Mr. Cranney has been a holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Porter of 406 South Brand boulevard, and Mr. Porter, who is president of the Canadian club, arranged for the concert in February.

It was in 1921 that Mr. Cranney received a distinct honor, receiving the silver medal in connection with the junior vocal examinations held by the Toronto Conservatory of Music, at centers throughout the Dominion.

Mr. Cranney is now 22 years of age and a brilliant career has been predicted for him.

CONTRACTOR TO ERECT 20 HOMES

Buys Lots on Hearing Result of Sewer Election; to Start at Once

One of the immediate results of the sewer bond election was seen this morning when a Los Angeles contractor came to the offices of the Haddock-Nibley company to close a deal for twenty lots in Rossmore, which he had made on the condition that the sewers were voted by the people of Glendale.

The sale was completed this morning and the contractor, who is erecting some of the most pretentious residences in the restricted districts of Los Angeles, will begin, within the coming week, to erect homes on each of the twenty lots.

The investment in the lots will run between $45,000 and $50,000, and the residences that will be built on them will send his total investment up to the $175,000 mark, Lon J. Haddock estimates.

HUNT FOR PROWLER

Officers Weese and Lomax were detailed to investigate a report from Mrs. Roth, 317 1/2 West Windsor Road, stating that a man was prowling around her home. Upon arrival the officers could find no trace of the suspicious character.

FIRM'S PROGRESS IS ENCOURAGING

Sheet Metal Works Started
New Year's Showing
Rapid Growth

"Business is fine, thank you," said John L. Watson, general manager of Glendale's infant industrial concern, this morning. The company, known as the Co-operative Sheet Metal Works, with offices at 402 South Glendale avenue, came into being on New Year's day, and is enjoying a lusty growth.

Associated with Mr. Watson are Van W. Krenzer, estimator and solicitor; Harry Reid, expert sheet metal worker; W. J. Berg, heating installation mechanic, and A. J. Boeckman, skylight and cornice builder. The company installs gutters, spouts, valleys, skylights, cornices and coping; and in addition will plan and install the heating facilities of a home, store or office building, no matter how small or how large. They are also agents for Braasch radiators and floor furnaces, as well as the Magic Way Unit system of heating, electrically controlled.

Well Known Here
Each member of the firm is well known in Glendale to contractors and builders, through their connection with various firms which operate in this city. They have adopted as their motto, "High-grade mechanics and service."

They also carry a stock of gas furnaces and gas radiators. Mr. Krenzer, who is the estimator, has had wide experience in this field and is a heating expert. "It is just as necessary," he states, "to have your heating arrangements laid out by an expert as it is to have an architect to plan your building."

He says that people are recognizing this fact more and more every day. To show their loyalty to Glendale they entered seven machines in the $10,000,000 parade Saturday, which is a very creditable showing for a firm just one week old. Their offices at 402 South Glendale avenue are temporary, and a move to larger quarters will be made as soon as a suitable location can be found.

CAR IS STOLEN
Robert L. Fraisher, of San Fernando, reported the theft of his Ford car to the police last night. He stated it was taken from near Brand and Wilson avenue. The license number was 556-389. The car was a 1923 model.

SELECT SITE OF AUTO CAMP HERE

Modern Cottages With Every Convenience Will Care
For Motorists

Of considerable interest to Glendale is the announcement by the United Camps, Inc., of the opening at 3201 San Fernando road, of the Glendale Auto Camp. This concern, which is erecting a chain of de luxe automobile camps to be the largest and best equipped in America, have selected this site as the most logical for their initial camp.

One hundred and four 2-room cottages with every convenience of a home, such as kitchen, breakfast nook, hot and cold water, toilet, shower, wall-bed and mattress, are being erected in the Glendale camp which is to serve as a model for all of the future camps up and down the Pacific Coast. Beside each house is constructed parking space for an automobile, with additional features at the front of the camp for general use, such as grocery, lunch room, tailor shop, gas station, community house with library, music room and writing room, men's and women's bath house and community laundry and clothes line.

The San Fernando road, Glendale, camp occupies four acres, which has been rolled, and roads of crushed granite and oil placed in front of all the houses. In addition to the features for the sanitary comfort of the tourists there will be recreation features, including a playground for the children, a tennis court, handball court and swimming pool.

The United Camps is a California corporation, officered entirely by local men. Geo. R. Mills is the president; W. E. Moyer, vice-president; Kenneth Gilliam, secretary and treasurer. Geo. P. Mills and Kenneth Gilliam conceived the idea of sanitary camping grounds with cabins, after many months of touring in various parts of the country. Personal investigation of conditions pointed to the crying need for just such arrangements. Many present camps located about Southern California bring complaints from tourists not only for lack of conveniences but of actually dangerous conditions of sanitation.

It is felt that the present up-to-date and standardized model set by the United Camps will establish a new precedent among auto camps.

TODAY—Amending the Constitution.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—You may have thought, from hearing the fervid orations that usually feature the Fourth of July, that the Constitution of the United States is a fairly solid and comprehensive document, leaving little to be desired.

But the Congress that represents you does NOT agree. Its members may profess to think so during the first week of every July, but in the other fifty-one weeks of the year many of them are continually bent on devising methods of changing it.

In the brief space the Sixty-eighth Congress has been in session more than half a hundred amendments to the Constitution have been chucked into the legislative hoppers of the Senate and House. If all were enacted they would change your method of paying taxes, getting married, getting divorced, becoming a citizen, electing a president, and what not. Even your diet might be affected, for there are several amendments that would allow the return of high-voltage beer.

However, it is not likely that many of them will be adopted, at least during the life of this Congress. Tinkering with the Constitution is tedious business. Many changes are proposed and few accepted. In more than half a century there have been but five amendments to the Constitution—an average of about one every decade.

The Fifteenth amendment, guaranteeing equal rights between whites and negroes, was adopted in 1871, and then for forty-four years there was no more tinkering with the Constitution.

The adoption in 1913 of the Sixteenth, giving Congress the power to levy taxes on incomes, apparently started constitutional minds to working again, with the result that in the same year the Seventeenth amendment, providing direct election of United States senators, was adopted. Then the famous Eighteenth, abolishing liquor and giving women the right to vote, followed in 1920. That's all there have been since 1871.

Of the new batch of amendments that have been proposed in the Sixty-eighth Congress there is one that bids likely to become the Twentieth, although whether it will be possible of accomplishment is doubtful.

DRINK WATER IF BACK OR KIDNEYS HURT

Begin Taking Salts if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Weakness

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acids, waste and poisons, else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night.

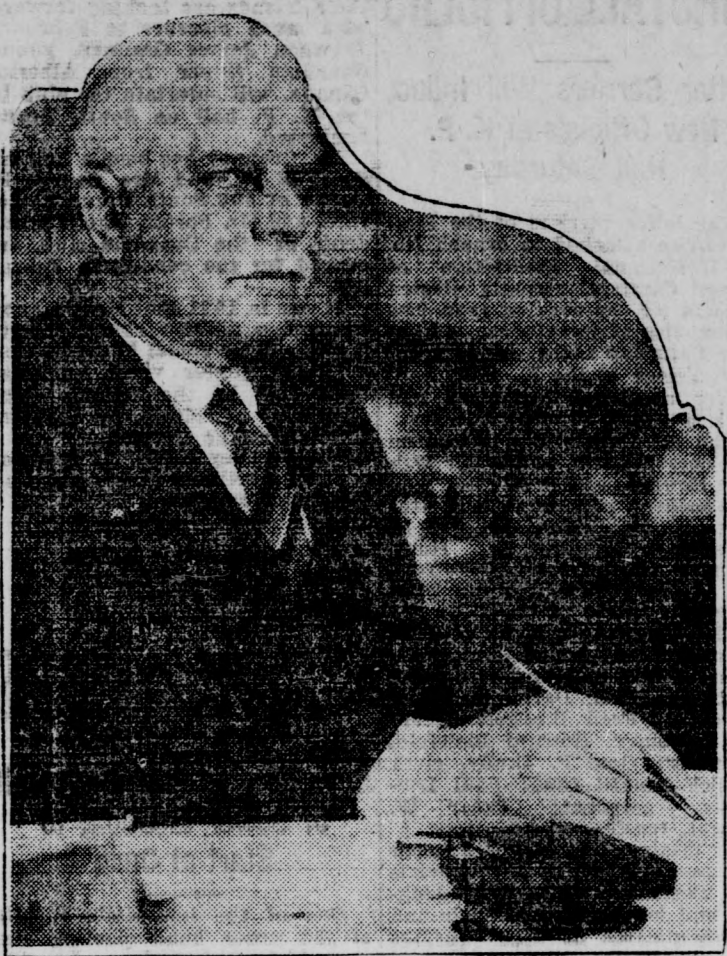

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders.

By all means, drink lots of good water every day. Have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advertisement.

LABOR LEADER FINANCE GENIUS

Warren S. Stone Heads Brotherhood's Bank

Warren S. Stone at his desk in the new brotherhood bank in New York

The first trust company in New York to be controlled directly by organized labor is now in operation. It is the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Co-Operative Trust Company. Warren S. On the Spur of the Moment

By ROY K. MOULTON

A government department has just advertised for 1,200 bedbugs for experimental purposes. So we learn from the esteemed New York Times. The government will pay $1 cent each for these little pests, but they must be in first-class condition. This is a chance to get rid of spare or undesirable bedbugs. The advertisement is not meant for New York readers exclusively, but is broadcasted over the land in hopes of securing the required number. It is not likely that any of our best citizens will respond to this advertisement, as it carries with it a sort of reflection, by innuendo, as it were. We have, however, in our shrewd way, solved this matter for the government and will save it further advertising expenses. The man who discovered the advertisement sent it to us claims that it will not be necessary to go outside of Washington to fill the quota. He claims that he stayed at a certain hotel on or near the main stem of the capital, and if he had known that the government needed 1,200 bedbugs to be saved, he could have saved the government more than 1,200,000 times.

They tell us that Europeans are hoarding American money. Frankly, we would like to know their system. For a good many years, off and on, we have tried to hoard American money, and we will say that it is about the hardest money to hoard that we have ever struck. The trouble about hoarding American money in America is that there are too many Americans actively engaged in discouraging this very admirable enterprise. Last Sunday Mr. Rockefeller, a very estimable old gentleman in many ways, had a birthday, and he advised young people to save their money, and gave away some brand new dimes. In reality he advised them to hoard American money. Whenever we go to buy a pint of gasoline to clean a vest or a few neckties, we learn just how difficult it is to follow his advice. Last year, to be perfectly honest, we hoarded several hundred dollars. Not many, but several. Along came March 15 this year, and a paternal government which believes in thrift takes away our hoardings. We were absolutely hosed with the government, and it so happened that our income tax exactly equaled what we had managed to hoard during the year. We would like to meet some of those Europeans who are hoarding American money. We would like to introduce them to our butcher and grocer and then turn them loose on the broad face of America and tell them to go ahead and hoard. We are sure this experiment would be watched with interest by a large portion of our populace.

A masked woman with the aid of a revolver, released a man from jail at Warren, Pa. Probably he was her husband and she wanted him to go to work. It is pretty difficult to get away with a soft snap these days.

One Ohio editor is anxious to know what is going to become of the young people. He might make his question a little more comprehensive and try to find out what is going to become of all the rest of us.

Inasmuch as reports show that only 15 per cent of the people are interested in golf, it is sometimes a question why this noble game should occupy 90 per cent of the space in many publications.

That little battle between Willard and the Bull didn't amount to much. It didn't break any banks. The affair out in Montana exploded three.

The heat in Paris has been so intense for two weeks that business is suspended, and the cable and the people just sit around and drink beer. It's different here. We just sit around.

Magnus Johnson, senator-elect from Minnesota, says he will wear no collar. But a good many senators have said that.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE CANDY BALLS.

Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy went to the door of the room where Uncle Wiggily was sitting in the easiest chair of his hollow stump bungalow. In one paw the muskrat lady housekeeper carried an empty coal scuttle.

"Bang! Bang!" rattled the empty coal scuttle against the side of the door. Uncle Wiggily heard it, and a look of pain came over his face.

"There is no use asking me to bring up any coal, Nurse Jane," said the rabbit gentleman. "I'm sorry, but I can't get you the coal!"

"Why not?" asked Nurse Jane. "Because my rheumatism hurts me so I can hardly move. If you want any coal brought up, I will telephone for the Police Dog and have him do it. I can't! Oh! Ough! Oh, what a pain!" And Uncle Wiggily's pink nose twitched sideways and upside down.

"I'm sorry for you!" murmured his muskrat lady housekeeper. "Never mind about the coal now. It will do later. I'll go to Dr. Possum's drug store and get you something to stop the pain."

"It is very kind of you," whispered Uncle Wiggily.

Out went Nurse Jane. Uncle Wiggily sat all humped up in his easy chair, when all of a sudden, he heard the door open.

"Ugh! Um! Oh, what a pain!" murmured the bunny, thinking it was Nurse Jane returning from the drug store.

"Oh, you have a pain, have you?" bleated a voice the bunny knew very well. "I'm sorry, for I came to ask you to play golf with me."

In came Uncle Butter, the goat, for Nurse Jane had left the door open when she went out.

"So you have a pain, eh?" asked the goat.

"Yes—rheumatism," answered Uncle Wiggily, looking at the empty coal scuttle. "But it seems to be a little better, now that you have come, Uncle Butter. Is that a new golf club you have?" asked the bunny, looking at the goat's bag.

"Yes, it's a putter cleek—the very newest club. I'm anxious to go out and see how far I can knock a ball with it."

"Do you know," began Uncle Wiggily, getting up from his chair, "do you know—I think it would do my rheumatism good to go out and play a game of golf. What do you think?"

"I think it would," answered Uncle Butter.

"Of course Nurse Jane will say something," murmured Mr. Longears. "But I can bring up the coal when I get back. Yes, I'll go play golf."

So before his muskrat lady housekeeper could return, Uncle Wiggily, forgetting all about his pain, dressed, got his bag of clubs and some round, hard white rubber balls and started with Uncle Butter for the golf fields.

On the way Uncle Wiggily stopped in front of a store window. He looked at some round, hard white balls of candy and took out some money.

"I'll buy Nurse Jane some of those candy balls," said the bunny gentleman, twinkling his pink nose. "She likes them very much and it will be something to make her feel more jolly when she finds out I have gone golfing."

"Yes, get her the candy balls," agreed Uncle Butter. So the bunny gentleman bought half a dozen of them, dropping them into the pocket of his bag with the golf balls.

On to the golf fields went Uncle Wiggily and his goat friend. They reached the place where the first rubber balls and started the first golf ball with a club, and Uncle Wiggily started off.

On a little hill of sand he placed a white ball. Then, raising his club, he gave the ball a hard knock, sending it well over the field.

"Ah, I feel great now!" cried the bunny. "My rheumatism is all gone!"

"Good!" bleated Uncle Butter. Then he knocked a golf ball, and after that he and Uncle Wiggily knocked and chased golf balls all around the field, now and then losing one in the rough or high grass.

At last the two friends came back toward the road to knock their last balls in the game. Uncle Wiggily put down a white ball on the little pile of sand and was just going to hit it when, all of a sudden, a voice from the road asked:

"How is your rheumatism now?"

Now? And there stood Nurse Jane with a smile wiggling her whiskers.

"Oh! Um! Er—my rheumatism is much better," answered the bunny. "It got better as soon as you went to the drug store for me and when Uncle Butter came in—"

Uncle Wiggily was so confused and ashamed of himself that he gave the golf ball an extra hard whack—and it flew all to pieces!

"Oh, you were playing one of the candy balls!" laughed Uncle Butter. "You played a candy ball instead of a golf ball."

"Well," laughed Uncle Wiggily, "they did look a great deal alike. But that reminds me, Nurse Jane, I have some candy balls for you. Here you are!" Putting his paw in the pocket of his golf bag Uncle Wiggily took Away she marched.

out a white ball, and handed it to Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

She took one hard hit on it and threw it at Uncle Wiggily.

"What sort of a trick is this?" cried Nurse Jane. "Making me try to eat a golf ball! The idea!" And she was so angry that away she marched and she wouldn't speak to Uncle Wiggily all that evening. The bunny had made a mistake, taking a golf ball out to give Nurse Jane, thinking it was a candy ball, just as he had played a candy ball thinking it was a golf ball.

"Well, mistakes will happen!" sighed the bunny. Then he brought a scuttle of coal up for Nurse Jane and she forgave him. So all was well. And if the bumble bee doesn't try to read the fly-paper and get caught in a mouse trap, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the icicles.

The day was chilly but the boss insisted on having all the windows wide open. The stenographer, whose dress consisted of a pair of shoulder straps alone, made audible protests.

"If you complain about a little cool air now, what will you do when winter comes?" the boss inquired.

"I'll get me an inside job then," was the chilling retort.—Judge.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Keys to the Calories"

A DISGRACE TO BE FAT?
Is it a disgrace to be fat? Not now, for we have not had enough popular instructions along the lines of dietetics. But it will be a disgrace before long. Up to recently we have been dissatisfied, discomfited, yes, even disgusted with ourselves when we were fat, but we have not felt that we have been disgraced.

Self-preservation is the first law of life. We eat in response to this law and there is no disgrace attached to the act. It is done openly, and frequently to the accompaniment of music, real and so-called.

But it is a disgrace to over-eat. Too many are starving, and we have no right to undermine our health and working capacity by over-eating.

Secretary of Labor Davis gave out some striking figures two years ago. His statistics showed that the average American eats more than a ton and a half of food a year. Now that statement does not mean much taken by itself, but coupled with the fact that it is half a ton more food per person than was consumed by the A. E. F., it means a lot! One-half ton of food more than was necessary to keep strong, virile young men in fighting fitness! It means a whole lot! It means that the average American eats a lot too much.

But how are you to tell if you eat too much? There is one safe little rule that you can go by. Are you over-weight? You eat too much.

"But Doctor, Doctor dear! I eat very little! I don't eat breakfast. I don't eat potatoes!"
YOU EAT TOO MUCH. NO MATTER HOW LITTLE IT IS, IF YOU STORE IT AWAY AS FAT.
"But I don't eat potatoes, Doctor! I don't eat..."

Pardon, old dear! It is not what you don't eat that makes you fat.

If I were to believe what I hear, I should judge that the heaviest weighters were so afflicted because they do not eat potatoes. The poor maligned potato! I am going to its rescue myself. Remember what I say. It is not what you don't eat that makes you fat. It is what you do eat. Absolutely.

It may be that there are some fat people who are light eaters. I never have met 'em.

It may be true that you eat less than some thin person you know of. Thin people have a reputation for eating so much that it makes them thin to carry it around, but that is not true. The average thin person, who has no disease as the cause of his thinness, does not eat enough for his needs, no matter how much he eats, as a rule. But we are coming to the T. T. T. later.

In this question of diet you cannot compare yourself to anyone else. You have to be your own standard, because there is no one else in this world who is made exactly as you are, or who has the same activities as yours.

Now when I say that you eat too much, I do not mean necessarily that you are gluttonous. You may not eat large amounts of foods, but you like the concentrated foods, foods that are rich, and high in calories. It is not the bulk of food that you eat, but the kind of food and its total value in energy units or calories that counts. That is why it is necessary to have a knowledge of the caloric values of the foods.

The reason those of you who do not eat potatoes, and do not eat breakfast, still do not reduce, is because even with this deprivation you have not brought your diet down to less than your maintenance needs—and unless you do this you cannot reduce. By not eating potatoes and eliminating breakfast you have kept yourself from gaining as much as you would have gained, undoubtedly.

But let me repeat, you have to eat less than it takes to maintain you, or you have to have more physical activities to use up the surplus fat, before you will lose any weight.

Also, the fat person is very apt to have a little something between meals and before going to bed. I will show you tomorrow how that will count up.

Tomorrow—The Small Appetite Myth.

My Dear Followers—When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on sending in stamps is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if information I have offered.

INTERPRETING THE DECORATIVE MODE

Embroidery and braiding are the last words in decorative smartness. The first is featured on the frock to the left—a serviceable blue twill made in one piece. Collar and cuffs are of self-material embroidered in Chinese colors with rope silk. The closing is at the left side, and below the narrow belt is a neat trimming of fancy buttons. Medium size requires 3 yards 54-inch material.

The next design could be made into an ideal sports frock, one of the novelty materials being used for its development. The opening is emphasized with fancy braid, the collar and revers being of plain material. Instead of the braid, a simple embroidery motif could be used to adorn the front of the dress. Medium size requires 3 yards 54-inch figured and 1/2 yard 36-inch plain material.

First model: Pictorial Review dress No. 1397. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 35 cents.

Second model: Dress No. 1383. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 35 cents.

AN ANSWER TO OBSERVERS
Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have read Observer's recent letter and wish to thank him for his friendly interest. If he is really as perfect as he seems to think he is, I should like to know if he is as perfect as I do you or any other person who sticks to his opinion when he thinks it is right.

will wager, however, that he is the kind of fellow who swears a blue streak when his flatter refuses to budge, but thinks it a shocking affair if a sweet young thing murmurs "damn" under the same circumstances. In other words, he believes in the double standard. That is the type of man I call a cad.

Also, I wonder if he doesn't try to "spoon" the first night he has a girl out. Many a girl who is not of an affectionate nature does with a man she admires merely because she thinks he expects it. I believe there is no harm in "petting," but I realize that to people who are not of an affectionate nature it may not be a pleasure. Still I have yet to meet those people.

As for boys talking about the girls who allow "petting," in my experience I have always found that such boys will talk about a girl anyway. They have a perfect right to discuss us, for, believe me, we discuss them.

EXPERIENCE.
Your previous letter brought many responses. All of the letters oppose your side of the argument and say about the same have it one single color she may use a contrasting color for the eyelet borders and picotting. The ribbon should match the yarn.

things. My dear girl, a gentleman is not cheap with his affections or in his conversation. Perhaps certain men will talk whether they are given reason to or not. But it is safer to be condemned as an icicle than to have one's reputation ruined because of a little impulsive love-making. The fact that a man or woman does not spoon and swear is no indication that the man or woman is lacking in affection and spirit. People merely have different ideals.

A WIFE WHO IS BEATEN

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been married three years, and I still love my husband better than anything in the world. He is just the sort of a man that every woman loves, impulsive, affectionate, but passionate and headstrong. I'm sure that I could never live without him, but sometimes I am almost convinced that I cannot live with him any longer.

In spite of his lovable character he has a terrible temper. It is queer but I believe I love him more because of it. I know it would be perfectly stupid to be married to a dull, torpid, uninteresting man.

But when my husband becomes angry he really becomes temporarily insane. He tells me that he does not know what he is doing. He has beaten me until I almost lost consciousness, thrown me to the floor and gone off not to return for two days. But when he comes back he is so perfectly wonderful in his treatment of me that it is almost worth it. Mind you, I say "almost"—nothing could be worth such a terrible beating as he gave me last week.

You can imagine what my life is like, perfect one day but perfectly horrible the next. It is breaking me down and I cannot go on with it. But I love my husband in spite of this terrible fault of his. I have left him twice, but have always come back. I can't live without him. What shall I do?

M. J. F.
Wife-beating is an unpardonable offense. No woman should should want to live with a brute, even if it is "almost worth it."

BEAUTY CHATS

THE ONLY TIME A WOMAN FEELS
The only time a woman feels very badly about gray hairs is in the very beginning when the first of them appear. After a time she accepts them philosophically, and eventually looks forward to the day when her friends will begin congratulating her on the beautiful snowiness of her locks. But there are years and years between when she will be fighting off the change.

If you don't want gray hair the first thing to do is to find out the reason for it, and if it is some disease of the scalp or the body to treat it that way. Rheumatism makes the hair gray, usually in patches. Scalp trouble will make the hair turn gray, but first make it lose the depth of its color and its good quality and lustre. Hereditary early grayness is a gradual, even spreading of gray hairs, usually underneath. Anyway, if you don't want gray hair it's worth a visit to a trichologist or a scalp specialist to find out the cause, and whether there is a cure.

For a year or two you will be able to pull out the gray hairs that show too prominently, but after a time they get ahead of you. Then for a few years you can color them by the proper sort of henna shampoo. If possible have someone in a beauty shop do this for you first to show you exactly how long the henna should stay on.

Purchase powdered Egyptian henna by the ounce. Mix one or two ounces in a bowl with enough boiling hot water to form a thick, creamy paste. Keep this hot while you are using it. Stir it until smooth, then part the hair and begin applying the paste with a small, old nail brush. Smear it thickly and as quickly as possible all over the scalp and finally all over the hair, pillaging the hair on top of the head as you cover it. This is where your skill comes in, for where the henna stays the longest the hair will be most coppery. It shouldn't take more than five minutes to apply, and when applied should stay on from two to three minutes or more, then be washed off quickly. This makes white hairs golden. It is done before the shampoo.

Mrs. J. E. B.: Buttermilk is not fattening as all this property has been removed from it in making the butter.

G. O. A.: At 19 years, height five feet, five inches, your weight should be between 120 and 125 pounds. A general reduction will relieve this fleshiness of face and hips, which is what you need more than exercises.

F. C.: Any antiseptic mouth wash will remove the odor of smoking and will not hurt the teeth or gums. Lemon juice in the last rinse water will not make your hair brittle if you use only enough of the juice so the water scarcely tastes of the acid. If your hair seems very dry afterward use less of the lemon thereafter.

June: The cucumber lotion cannot be printed at this time, but I will be glad to mail the formula if you send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Who's Who in the Day's News

DR. FRIDTJOF NANSEN
The arrival in New York recently of Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, high commissioner for relief in Europe and the Near East, on a quest for money to feed a million Greek refugees in Thrace, brings an impressive figure again into the focus of the day's news.

It was in 1896 that Nansen, grimy and battered, in clothing fashioned by him self of skins, walked out over the Arctic ice to Spitzbergen with a single companion.

From a point nearer the North Pole than any man had ever reached before, and into a place in the world's regard which he has never lost.

For almost a generation Nansen has been known as a statesman and scientist, and his feats as an explorer have been sinking farther and farther into the background, and yet it was in these that people saw the Nansen they have never quite forgotten.

Dr. Nansen is 63 years old. He was born on a farm near Christiania, Norway. His father was a prominent lawyer. His mother traced her ancestry back to the old Norse aristocracy. He attended school in Christiania and while at the university there won fame as a ski jumper. This later stood him in good stead when he led a small party across the interior of Greenland on skis against the advice of Arctic students.

Later, with a "freak" ship, the Fram, Nansen tried out a theory he had evolved that the ice drift past the North Pole. He left Norway in 1893 with the ship, and three years later Nansen and one partner arrived on foot in Spitzbergen just as the Fram sailed down the coast of Greenland. He had been away from the ship almost a year, however, having attempted a dash by sledge to the Pole. He and the companion had lived 267 days on blubber.

Nansen played an important part in Norwegian politics for years. Later he was drawn into world affairs, always from the humanitarian standpoint. He was active in the separation of Norway and Sweden, and on the establishment of the monarchy in Norway he was made minister to England in 1906.

And now, at the head of the international relief commission of the league of nations, he is trying to raise money to support the Greeks who have fled from Asia Minor to Thrace and settled on farms there, but who, without such help, will starve before their first crop can be raised, he says.

HARRY KESSLER
Count Harry Kessler, who arrived in the U. S. recently for the purpose of delivering a series of addresses on "Germany and the European Tangle" at the Institute of Politics, at Williamstown, Mass., was formerly director of the Grand Ducal Museum of Art and of Art Applied to Industry at Weimar.

It is believed he was born in New York where his father, the late Adolph Kessler, spent so many years in business as head of certain rare oils, which produces a clear amber liquid that is applied with the finger tips. It is so penetrating that it disappears within a few seconds, so it must be entirely absorbed by the body tissues. Results are truly amazing! Tired muscles regain life, creaking joints become supple, annoying twinges disappear. Even the most advanced, stubborn cases show astonishing improvement almost at once.

Rheumatism, has been found in an enormous number of cases, is due to toxic poisons formed in the intestines, which are carried by the blood to the muscles and joints—and the new German oil is designed to neutralize these pain-causing poisons.

So amazing have been the results from this German discovery that American distributors have authorized local druggists to offer it under a positive written guarantee, signed by the druggist himself, to refund the purchase price if even the first application fails to bring prompt and gratifying relief.

If you suffer from stabbing rheumatic pains in the arms, legs and muscles—if your back sometimes feels as if it would break in two—if your joints rasp and torture you—then by all means try a bottle of Euhler Oil today. You'll never want to be without it.

Remember—it is sold under an absolute written guarantee from your druggist. If it fails to give you relief after the first application, your druggist will refund the money without question. In this Euhler Oil is a bottle of the absolute written guarantee from good druggists such as: Lexington Drug Co., Roberts & Echols, Owl Drug Co., and Geo. E. Black.

Local Druggists Give Written Guarantee to Refund Money if First Application Fails to Bring Relief.
A remarkably new discovery now promises quick, soothing relief to rheumatic pains and Novotaine chemistry that has given to the world the boon of Aspirin for the relief of headache, neuralgia and Novotaine for painless dentistry, has now come forward with another scientific discovery that is absolutely guaranteed to end rheumatic pains.

'EAST IS WEST' AT CLUB PLAYHOUSE

Royal Stock Company Wins High Praise For Its Clever Presentation

Edythe Elliott as Ming Toy in "East Is West," which opened last night at the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre, offered play-goers a delightful treat and revealed another facet of her rich and varied talent. Her role was that made famous by Fay Bainter in the original New York production and she did not suffer by the comparison.

Several other players of the Royal Stock company deserve particular praise for their able interpretations of difficult roles, among them Rodney Hildebrand as Billy Benson, William Chapman as Lo Sang Kee and Roscoe Karns as Charlie Yang, not omitting Manager Charles E. Royal himself, who played Hop Toy in the prologue.

"East Is West" is the dramatic Chinese oddity by John Hymans and Sam Shipman, that ran for two years in New York and has proved one of the most popular plays ever produced. Judging by the appreciative reaction it was given last night, tonight's and Saturday night's performances, with the Saturday matinee, will see full houses.

Mr. Royal states that there will be no show Friday night, as the theatre will be given over to the Glendale Music club on that occasion. Beginning Wednesday, January 16, "Some Baby" will be presented for a week. This is a comedy out and out, and one of the funniest ever produced.

HUNT FOR BADGE BANDIT NARROWS

Glendale Police Within Ace
Of Arresting Suspect
On Motor Stage

The scene of the hunt for Harry J. Dunlap, notorious "Badger" or "Footbill" bandit, once more shifted to Glendale and vicinity last night.

At 7 o'clock a call was sent in from a driver on the Tujunga stage to the local police headquarters stating that the much wanted man was a passenger on the stage.

Chief Fraser immediately sent Detective Sergeant Blake, Sergeant Kerns and Motor Officers Devine, Collins and Jones in pursuit. When the stage was overtaken, the driver informed the officers that the bandit had got off at Indiana avenue in Montrose. Meanwhile Sheriff William Traeger had been notified and he dispatched a large number of officers to the scene.

A thorough search of the vicinity failed to locate the bandit. Many of the sheriff's deputies are still in Montrose prosecuting the hunt.

Board Is Enthused Over Bond Victory

three members of his staff, Chalmer D. Day, James Strother and Allen Pollock, who have become members of the board.

Suggestions that the present one-hour parking law be changed to permit two hours' parking were made by E. P. Hayward, who declared that the present rule works hardship on many people.

W. L. Truitt raised a laugh when he displayed a vacant chair with a label on it that was supposed to identify one of the most strenuous opponents of the sewer bonds, and he also introduced Robert H. Thompson, of the National Educational Institute, who called the names of practically every man in the room, although he had never known any of them until he had entered the dining room yesterday.

President Peter Hanson, who surrendered the chair to Vice-President W. L. Twining, thanked the people and the organizations for the assistance they had given in the election, and urged that all animosities be laid aside, and that the citizens of Glendale work for a bigger and better city than Glendale has shown itself to be in the past.

A number of reports were submitted by committee chairmen in the routine.

Injures Ankle When She Steps on Nail

While passing a new building under the course of construction on East Broadway, across from Harrower's Laboratories last night, Mrs. W. H. Lenderwood, 119 East Broadway, stepped on a board in which a nail was exposed, running the nail into her ankle.

Mrs. Lenderwood received medical treatment and the contractor was notified of the accident. She stated it was so dark at this point that it was impossible to see the board.

DALEY'S MAILING DIVIDEND CHECKS

Grocery Company Sends Out Share of Profits to Stockholders

Stockholders in Daley's, Incorporated, owning a chain of grocery stores in southern California, two of which are located in Glendale, are receiving joyous New Year's greetings in the shape of dividends out of the profits during the past year, according to a notice received today from President Joseph A. Daley by Ben H. Wood, local manager of the Daley's store.

The board of directors of that company recently declared a dividend at the rate of eight per cent per annum payable out of the surplus profits of the corporation on all outstanding preferred stock of the corporation, dividend to be paid on January 2, 1924, to all stockholders of record on December 31, 1923. In addition a common stock dividend at the rate of ten per cent was also declared payable to all stockholders of common stock of record on December 15, 1923, which is being paid on the same date as the preferred stock dividends.

Extend Territory

The Daley's chain of stores has grown from four stores in 1916, to 127 at the close of 1923, stretching from Tustin on the south, to Ventura on the north. According to announcements from Mr. Daley, plans are under way to establish at least fifty additional stores during 1924. Thirty-two stores were opened during last year and the company has enjoyed a steadily increasing business.

Recently twelve stores operated by the California Chain Stores were taken under the Daley's wing and are now being stocked and operated by them. Under the personal management of President Joseph A. Daley, the chain of stores bearing his name have shown remarkable progress. Mr. Daley states that chain grocery stores in southern California have only scratched the surface, for with practically every community expanding, the need for stores of the Daley's type, will increase, and a bright future is predicted for the corporation.

Among the many local people who are customers of the Daley's stores, are a great number who are financially interested in the concern. Thus, they not only profit by the savings in the purchase of their food supplies, but receive in addition profits in dividends such as those just announced.

Withdraw Property Till Sewer Is Built

Hayward & McCartney, realtors of 142 South Brand and 1310 South Brand boulevard, announce that they have taken from the market their double flat at 1510-1510 1/2 South Brand boulevard and will not do anything further to develop this property until Glendale's sewer system is completed, when they will erect on the site a six-story apartment building of the highest type.

This property lies in the very heart of the choice apartment district, states H. P. Hayward, and is peculiarly adaptable for a large apartment building.

With an adequate sewer system, there will be no trouble in financing such a building, Mr. Hayward states.
